Highway Work Amounting To $5,036,350.00 Well Underway

Highway work amounting to $5,036,350.00 is well underway in the sixteen (16) counties of the Sixth Highway District of which Hancock County is a part, Commissioner Mundell Bush announced here today.

Mr. Bush asserted this is in addition to other road contracts involving work in this district included in the record-breaking $3,905,619.00 road letting held in Jackson on May 27.

Road work in the Southern Mississippi Highway District as a whole, prior to the May letting, amounted to $8,802,150.00, Commissioner Bush stated.

Twenty-seven (27) different projects are in various stages of completion in the Sixth District, according to Mr. Bush.

"Our post-war road-building program is well underway now that we are getting labor, materials and equipment, and Mississippi, already boasting one of the best highway systems in the country, is going to have just cause to be proud of its roads when the present program is completed," Commissioner Bush stated.

"Total funds available to the Southern District when all bonds are sold will be approximately $21,000,000.00 and even at today's high prices, you can do much road-building with this amount of money. I can assure the taxpayer the State Highway Department is getting the most possible for every dollar and we are proceeding with the work as fast as possible—in fact, we feel we are further advanced than most of the other states in our highway building program."

Mr. Bush said work is progressing nicely on a $306,800.00 project covering grading, drainage, and bridges on Highway 90 beginning at the west exit of Bay St. Louis. Highway figures indicate this project was 52.57% completed on May 10.

At an early date bids will be received on Hancock County's first Farm-to-Market road project. This project will provide for the construction of a section of the Kiln-Pass Christian Road including a new bridge over Bayou La Terre.

Also surfacing is being placed on the Lakeshore connection to U. S. 90 and this will be completed at an early date.

MISSISSIPPI-MADE CHENILLE GOODS

Demolishing of First Baptist Church Begun

On Monday, June 30 the first nail was drawn in the demolishing of the building, the First Baptist Church, which has been the place of worship for the Baptist congregation for the past 50 years or more.

Since the decision was reached that a new church was a necessity there have been varied opinions expressed by the church as to what use the present building would be put to. It was finally decided by a vote of the church that no better use could be made of it than to demolish it and use the material in the building of a better and bigger church and Sunday School rooms. And that is what is being done.

Services are being held in the Bay High School auditorium for the present.

Attend 141st District Assembly of Rotary International at Gulfport

The Bay St. Louis Rotary Club was represented at the 141st District Assembly of Rotary International held at the Markham Hotel, Gulfport on Thursday and Friday, June 26-27 by O. W. Delph, president of the local club, A. E. Cox and A. H. Gregory.

Attending the assembly was the outgoing district governor, Raymond Butler and the incoming district governor, W. Ed Wiggins of Pascagoula. Mr. Wiggins spoke on "We Have a Job to Do" and Mr. Butler on "The A. B. C's of Aims and Objects of Rotary."

The men say it was an inspiring meeting and there was much to learn and much to gain by being present.

Uncle Sam Says

Abraham Lincoln's birthday should be a reminder to my nieces and nephews that they have the opportunity to emancipate themselves from future insecurity by buying United States Savings Bonds regularly. Every time you buy a bond you've added something to the future you're creating—a home, an education for your children, a secure old age for yourself. Every signed payroll savings authorization card is a personal emancipation proclamation—a future hand-to-mouth existence. Every regular purchase of a Savings Bond at your bank, post office or where you work is another step toward future happiness.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Sam Helps with the Dishwashing

Dropped in at the Abernathy's just the other evening — and there was Sam, out in the kitchen with an apron on, helping his missus wash the supper dishes. (And then I learned later he'd helped cook the supper, too.)

Of course, Sam could have settled into his favorite chair, enjoyed his evening glass of beer, and left all the messy kitchenwork to Dixie. But he kind of likes her company — and she in turn certainly appreciates his help.

In fact, sharing the housework and the mealtime chores is sort of a bond between them... like sharing that friendly glass of beer together, when the work is done. It's one of those little all-important things in marriage.

From where I sit, the time that a man and wife can spend with each other in this busy world today is all too precious. And the more things they can do together, the better.

RED CROSS NEWS

Mary Leigh Weston, who has returned from the 10 day National Red Cross Aquatic School held at Pine Mountain State Park, Chipley, Georgia, will be among the instructors in the local Red Cross Chapter "learn-to-swim" classes this summer. Mrs. J. B. Goldman, Water Safety Chairman, announced today.

At the Aquatic School, Miss Weston received special instruction in life saving and water safety, swimming and diving, operation of small craft, accident prevention and first aid techniques.

The Hancock County Chapter, which sponsored Miss Weston's training, will utilize it in various safety programs in which she will participate as a volunteer, Mrs. Goldman said.

The Aquatic School, at Chipley, one of the 31 being sponsored by the Red Cross this summer over the nation, this year had a capacity enrollment of 79 students from several states, who like Miss Weston, having returned home to participate in community safety programs of the Red Cross or other organizations.

A class for beginners in swimming will start on Monday, July 7th, at 10 A. M. It will be held on

ORTTE THEATER PRESENTS RONALD COLMAN IN "THE LATE GEORGE APLEY" SUNDAY - MONDAY

Marking the return to the screen of Ronald Colman after a two-year absence, and introducing the beautiful young British star, Peggy Cummins, "The Late George Apley," Twentieth Century-Fox's filmization of John P. Marquand's Pulitzer Prize novel opens Sunday and Monday at the Ortte Theatre. The story that began life as an immediate best-selling sensation, won this country's most coveted literary award, and then went on to captivate record-breaking Broadway audiences when it was put into play form by Marquand and George S. Kaufman, now is being acclaimed as the most titillating screen play in years.

In the title role of the hilarious film, Ronald Colman is seen as the staid Bostonian aristocrat, who, still living in the world of birds and bees, is catapulted into the battle of his life when confronted with the facts of life via the "unconventional" romance of his impetuous daughter. From the beginning, Director Joseph L. Mankiewicz, and Producer Fred Kohlmar could picture only Colman as "Apley," the grim and circumspect Bostonian. The star had been off the screen for two years reading script after script, refusing roles he didn't feel suited him. He was, however, brought out of his self-imposed retirement when Darryl F. Zanuck sent him a finished script of "The Late George Apley"; it was the challenging and exciting part Colman had been waiting for.

Stunning Peggy Cummins plays Colman's daughter, Eleanor, a dutiful girl, but with definite ideas of her own. Although the petite, vivacious Irish star has never before appeared on the screen in the United States, it is expected that her portrayal in this picture will establish her as one of the most exciting new screen personalities in years. Charles Russell, whose role in "The Purple Heart" won for him the praise of critics throughout the nation, was assigned the romantic lead opposite Peggy. Lovely Vanessa Brown, who scored high in "Margie," also plays a principal romantic role with Richard Ney as her indifferent suitor on whom reverse "English" works wonders. Richard Hayden, the unforgettable apothecary of "Cluny Brown," has another fine role in "The Late George Apley"; he is Horatio Willing, Apley's verbose "yes" man. Edna Best, Mildred Natwick, Percy Warman and Nydia Westman are also featured in important roles.

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Elizabeth Brown

Funeral services were held here on Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock for Mrs. Elizabeth McGuire Brown, who died at Hotel Dieu on Friday, June 28th, following an illness extending over a period of ten weeks. The funeral was held from the Fahey Funeral Home with a requiem Mass at St. Claire's Catholic Church, Waveland, the Rev. Father Costello, officiating. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery, Bay St. Louis.

Mrs. Brown was a native of New Orleans but had lived here for the past forty years. She was the wife of the late Albert C. Brown whose parents founded the widely known Brown's vineyard almost 100 years ago. Mrs. Brown came there as a bride and she and her husband continued the manufacture of the much talked of scuppernon wine made of the pure juice of the grape. After his death she sold the grape in bulk and the vineyard known to the visitors to this section for so many years began to deteriorate.

Mrs. Brown is survived by a sister Miss Annie McGuire of New Orleans and a Nephew John Murphy also of New Orleans. She also left four nieces, children of Mr. Brown's sister, Mrs. Elsie Toca of New Orleans who came for the funeral; Mrs. Olga Rogers, of Oxford; Mrs. Mildred Price of Ottaway, Canada; Mrs. Ione Sheperdson of Richmond, Virginia. Others here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Emile Toca of New Orleans.

Acting as pallbearers were Leon B. Capdepon, Frank Quintini, Sidney Garcia, John Murphy and Charles McGuire.

Hospital Notes

Mr. and Mrs. David Carpenter, Bay St. Louis, nee Miss Laura Georf, 28, a daughter on Saturday, June 28.

Mrs. Prentiss Asher underwent an appendix operation this week.

Mrs. Tony Perronne, Dedcaux, is a patient at the hospital.

Matthew Bilbo, Kiln, has been discharged.

Glen Bowen, Highland, Texas, treated for deep cut on his foot, which he sustained while bathing.

Warren Trauth, 1030 Lafayette Street, Gentilly, treated for cut on foot sustained while bathing.

newcomer John Kellogg, Watch Kellogg! He's gathering quite a few laurels for his performance in the film as Dick Powell's traitorous friend.

From an original story by Milton Holmes (he authored "Mr. Lucky" and "Sally O'Rourke") director Robert Rossen has fashioned a screenplay which is said to literally crackle with excitement. Crisp, staccato-paced dialogue adds to the effectiveness of a well-knit, smooth production.

From all advanced reports "Johnny O'Clock" means thrill-time, so don't miss your date with him at the Ortte Theatre for your share of excitement.

FIELDING WRIGHT FOR TEMPERANCE

Fielding Wright is not only personally dry by precept and example, but his platform and record on the liquor question is in keeping with his personal habits and views on this important question.

FIELDING WRIGHT'S STAND and platform on the important Prohibition Question, is as follows:
"In 1934 I voted for House Bill 587 which passed the House by a vote of 81 to 39 as recorded on pages 506 and 507 of the House Journal. The purpose of this bill was to give to the people of our State an opportunity to express themselves on the question of legalizing liquor. During the campaign for Lt. Governor in 1943, I stated that my position on the liquor question would be in accordance with the wishes of the people of the State; that as a state official since the people had expressed themselves at the referendum election, I would do all within my power to preserve and maintain the prohibition laws of our state; that I believed in the old democratic principle of majority rule and would be guided by their expressed will. Evidently the people of Mississippi were willing to take my word in 1943 for I was elected Lt. Governor by a majority of 44,606. No one can say I failed to live up to the promise I made to the people then because the Senate passed every single piece of legislation offered to strengthen the prohibition laws of our State. The record will show that on the motion to take up consideration of the bill to strengthen our prohibition laws while I was Lt. Governor a tie vote resulted, and as presiding officer, and in conformity to the promise I made in the campaign, I voted for the motion and made possible immediate consideration of this legislation. Some would like to forget that part of my record.

"In the Special Session called by me in March of this year, I recommended the repeal of the Lock Market Tax. My position on this remains the same and the new Legislature to be elected by the people will have an opportunity at the session convening in January to pass on this important question, but we must face the stern fact that a change in the general attitude of our people with reference to law enforcement is vitally needed especially as pertains to the sale and consumption of liquor. It is my conviction that a majority of the people of our state want the prohibition laws retained and enforced. I will not recommend the repeal of our liquor laws and I will oppose any effort to repeal or weaken them. On the other hand, with your help and the help of the legislature, we will retain, strengthen and enforce the prohibition laws we now have."

Quotation from Fielding Wright Platform and campaign speeches.

Actions Speak Louder Than Words

Quotes Ed. P. Ortte

Candidate for

Board of Supervisors

Beat 5

It is a very easy task for any business executive or a member of a board of directors, or a County Supervisor, which are all in the same category to be very proficient in the execution of their duties, providing of course, they have the finances and the power at their disposal, but it is very difficult when a series of complications enter the picture.

In my last two editorials, it was my intentions to convey to the public under what circumstances I was confronted with in both the hard surfacing of the Lake Shore road and the repairing of the Seawall and I trust all who read these editorials will well understand the difficulties that existed at that time.

It is very easy for one to carry on the routine of their duties and it is also easy for one to offer to the least line of resistance and to give up during the dark hours of adverse circumstances, however, I have always lived under the theory, "that where there is a will there is a way," thusly, I have never hesitated in going beyond my duties as your Supervisor in serving you to the full limit of my ability. I never look for an excuse or an alibi when dealing with the public, either it can or it can not be done and I have and will always try to please each and every citizen at all times.

Promises and conversation of what a person will do is very little to place confidence in. I would rather be judged and supported by my activities if the past, than by hollow promises of the future.

Watch for next week's important message in "ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS."
